8th meeting

Paragraph 36 should read:

Ms. Holguín (Colombia) said that her Government attached great importance to the activities of the United Nations Information Centre in Colombia and provided 81 per cent of its annual budget. Colombia had the largest United Nations presence in Latin America; it therefore made sense for the Information Centre to remain in the country. Her Government took the view that information about a country and its region should be generated within that country or region.
